- Ads will be out 1 week in advance.

5.) Etc...

- From Andy Bohnsack:
 - Hoping to do an Elementary Outreach day sometime before the D1s go to summer break. Working on finding a date that works.
- From Brett Moore:
 - Lunch And Learns – Dr. Madden is likely going to be the faculty sponsor. The current issue we have is that no faculty subs are allowed, so there is little to fall back on if Dr. Madden can't make it. It was brought up that other student organizations don't appear to have faculty advisors, so why does ASDA need one for Lunch and Learns? The guess at an answer was to ensure that presenters don't "break the rules."
- From Mike Lee:
 - There will be a leadership retreat sometime this summer, possibly in June. Time and date TBA.
